

Romania

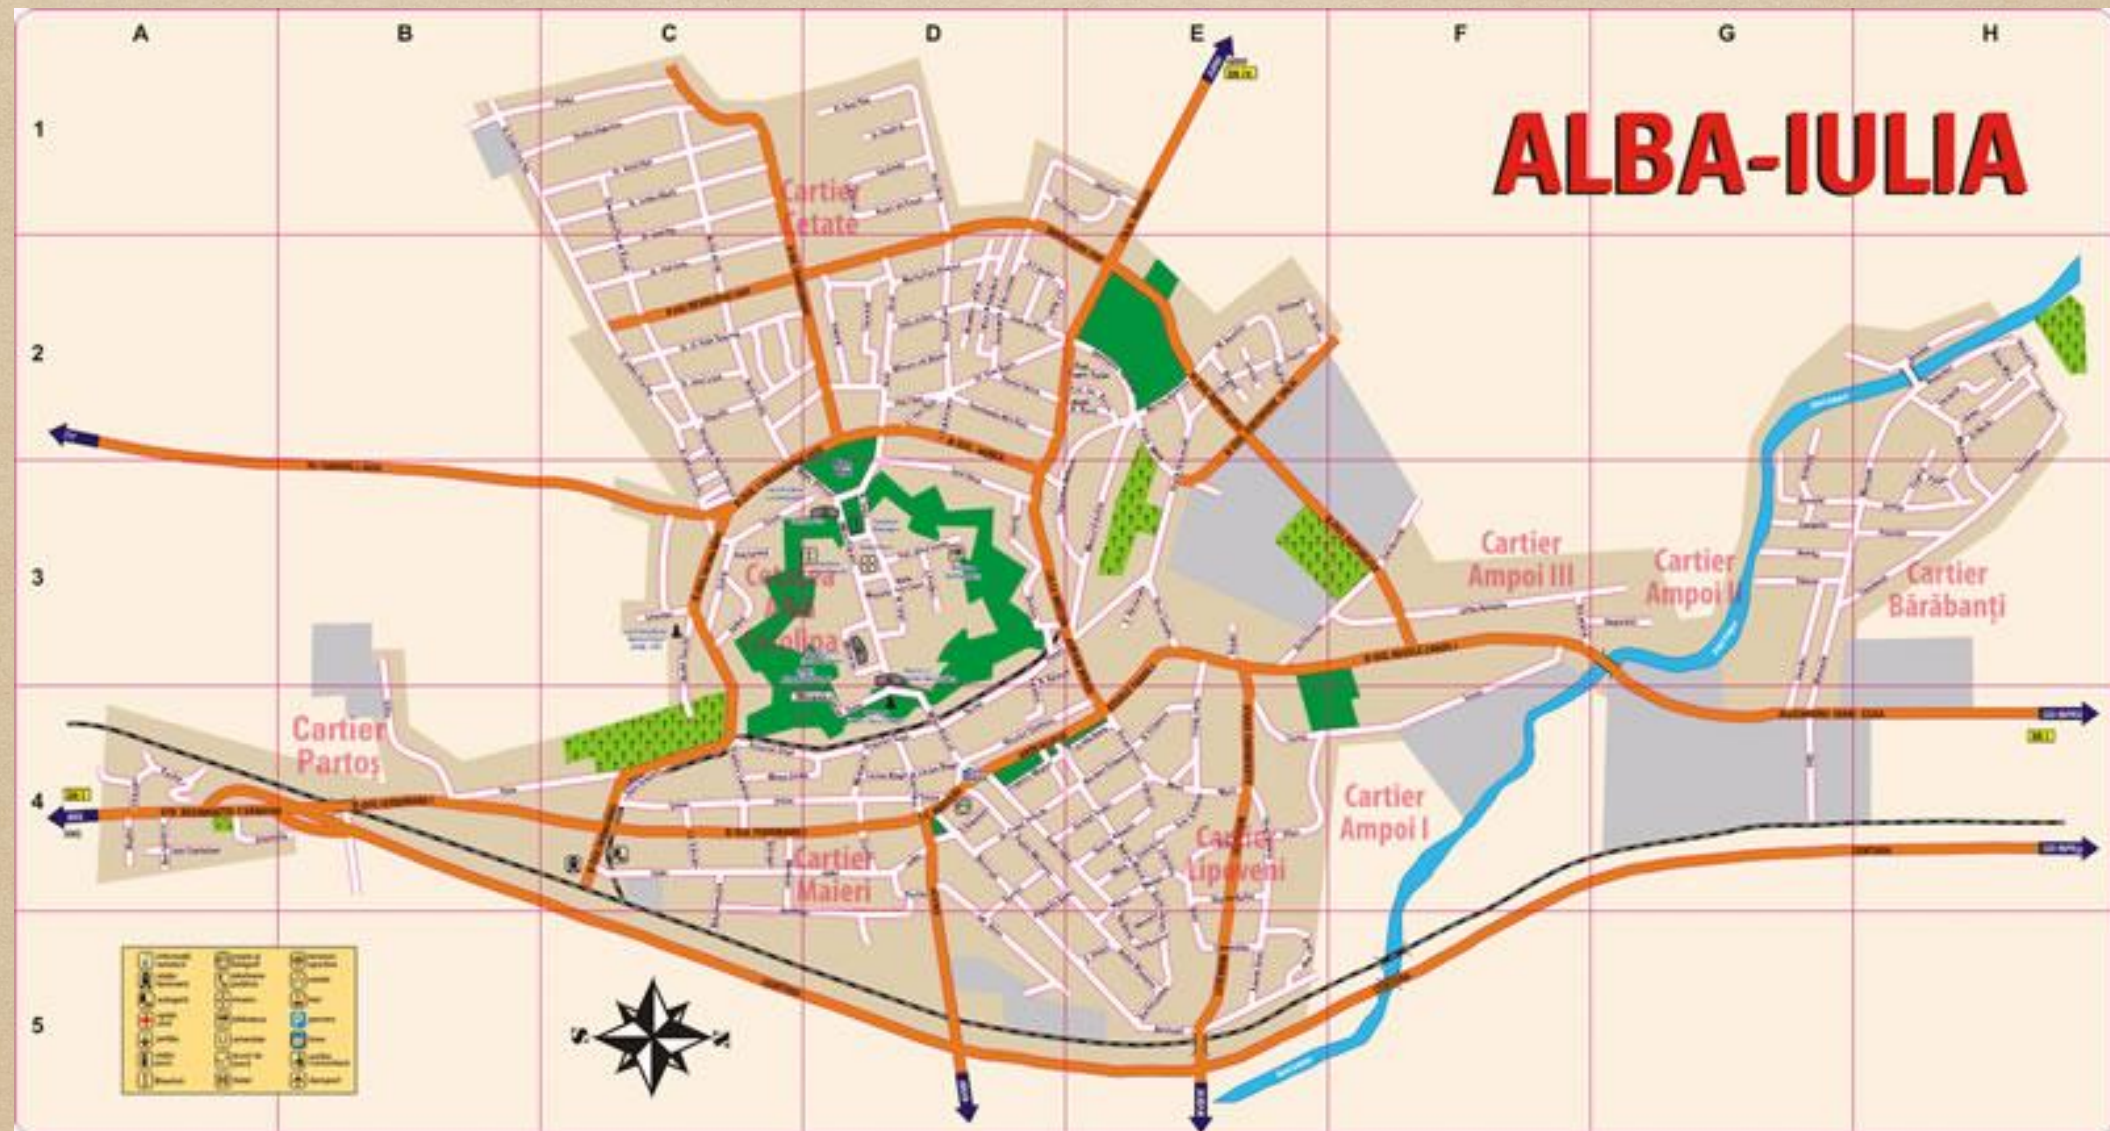

- In south eastern Europe
- 238,397 skm, 22,194,000 inhabitants
- Romanian language - Latin with Slavic influences
- Long and complicated history

Alba County

- Center of Romania
- 342,376 inhabitants
- 90% Romanians, 6% Hungarians, 3% Germans
- County capital - Alba Iulia

Alba Iulia

- Apulum in Roman times (106-271 a.d.)
- Gyulafehérvár, Balgrad in Medieval times
- Weisenburg in Austrian times (18th-19th century)
- Soul capital of Romania

Principia Museum

- One of the newest museums in Alba Iulia
- One of the 3 objectives from Roman times
- Modern building over an ancient site
- Headquarters of the 13th Gemina Legion

- Department of Municipality of Alba Iulia
- 4 employees
- Opened on 1st May 2015
- Built with European funds

- Made in glass, plexiglass and steel
- Walls covered with computer generated reconstructions of the ancient building

- Monumental Porticus gate
- 2 sectors: outside (collection of roman monuments - most of them with inscriptions)
- Inside (2 rooms from the former headquarters building of the legion)

- Aedes (treasury)
- Drainage system
- Office room with hypocaustum
- Ancient constructions mixed with modern reconstruction

Ciprian Mircea Dobra

- Guide and curator of the Principia Museum
- Responsibilities: acquisitions, exhibitions and events, relations with other museums, tickets, maintenance
- Personal interests: Roman military and culture
- Hobbies: Roman re-enactment and armour crafting

Ciprian Mircea Dobra

Guide and Curator

Principia Museum

cipmir@yahoo.com